MATTHEWS, Shailer = Dean, Divinity School, U. of Chicago 1918-1919

(073)

December 10th, 1910.

President Chaffee Tuttleman,

Collodge Commons.

Dear President Tuttleman:

Would it be at all possible for you to give us a day in the second term and preach one of the sermons in Convocation Hall ? We are only now arranging our programme, because owing to the absence of coal we did not know what condition we should find ourselves in. If you will give us a choice of dates and mention the most convenient, we will certainly try to meet your wishes.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

Mr. Shailer Matthews,

Chicago.

My dear Mr. Matthews:

It is a great pleasure to know that you will be able to care for us again during next term. Would you let us know what dates in March would suit you best ?

With kind regards and the seasons greetings,

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

OFFICE OF THE DEAN

December 28, 1918.

My dear Sir Robert:

I should have answered your letter of December 18th ere this but I hope my delay has caused you no inconvenience.

I am inclined to think that March 30th would be the best day in the month for me, but if the 23rd would be more acceptable to you, I could easily arrange it.

It will be a great pleasure to come to the University again.

SM AA

Yours very sincerely,

Shailer Mathews

Dean Shailer Mathews,

The Divinity School,

The University of Chicago.

Dear Dean Shailer Mathews:

I am very glad to know that you will be able to come to us in March. The date that suits us best is the 23rd, and as I see from your letter you can make that convenient, I hope you will make the 23rd a fixture.

With best wishes for the New Year,

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

My dear Dr. Matthews:

I am glad that you enjoyed the Project of the Commonwealth. Its author is Lionel Curtis, who takes a very deep interest in the problems of the Empire.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
